A deceptively spacious and extended terraced bungalow with converted attic space, set within the popular village of Dundonald, with an incredible south-west facing country garden to the rear.

Nestled at the centre of the historic village of Dundonald, close to all the amenities of the village and a short walk from the castle, 10 Main Street is a delightful terraced cottage that offers a surprising amount of extended accommodation and charming features that will appeal to a range of potential purchasers. There are two large sitting rooms, a downstairs bedroom and a floored and lined attic bedroom. While the property requires a degree of modernisation and upgrading, reflected in the asking price, there is excellent potential to create a truly special home in an idyllic location, with generous country gardens at the rear that simply must be viewed.

In more detail, the internal accommodation extends to an entrance hallway, a spacious lounge, a downstairs bedroom with a storage cupboard, a fully wet-walled shower room, an under stairs storage cupboard, a fitted kitchen with ample wall and base units and a door to the rear garden and a sitting room extension with sliding patio doors out to the rear garden. There are stairs leading up to a landing and attic bedroom with a dormer window.

Externally there is on-street parking to the front and a fantastic country garden to the rear that extends through three separate areas, with mature trees and shrubs, a garden shed, a paved patio area, a pond, lawn and an incredible amount of privacy.

Dundonald is a popular village, steeped in history, ideally placed for the A77/M77 and with a range of local amenities. It is also well-located for access to the towns of Kilmarnock, Troon, Irvine and Ayr, all with a comprehensive range of amenities, including schools, transport links to Glasgow and beyond, shops, restaurants and bars, supermarkets and leisure facilities. Ayrshire is renowned for its beautiful countryside and first class golf courses, including Royal Troon and Trump Turnberry, both regular hosts of the Open Championship. Prestwick International Airport, flying regularly to several destinations throughout Europe, is only 7 miles distant.
