This fantastic, B-Listed upper conversion built circa 1880 is an excellent opportunity to acquire a spacious conversion in need of modernisation and turn it into a superb family home. It offers flexible accommodation and retains the full original staircase in the former townhouse as well as ownership of the front garden.

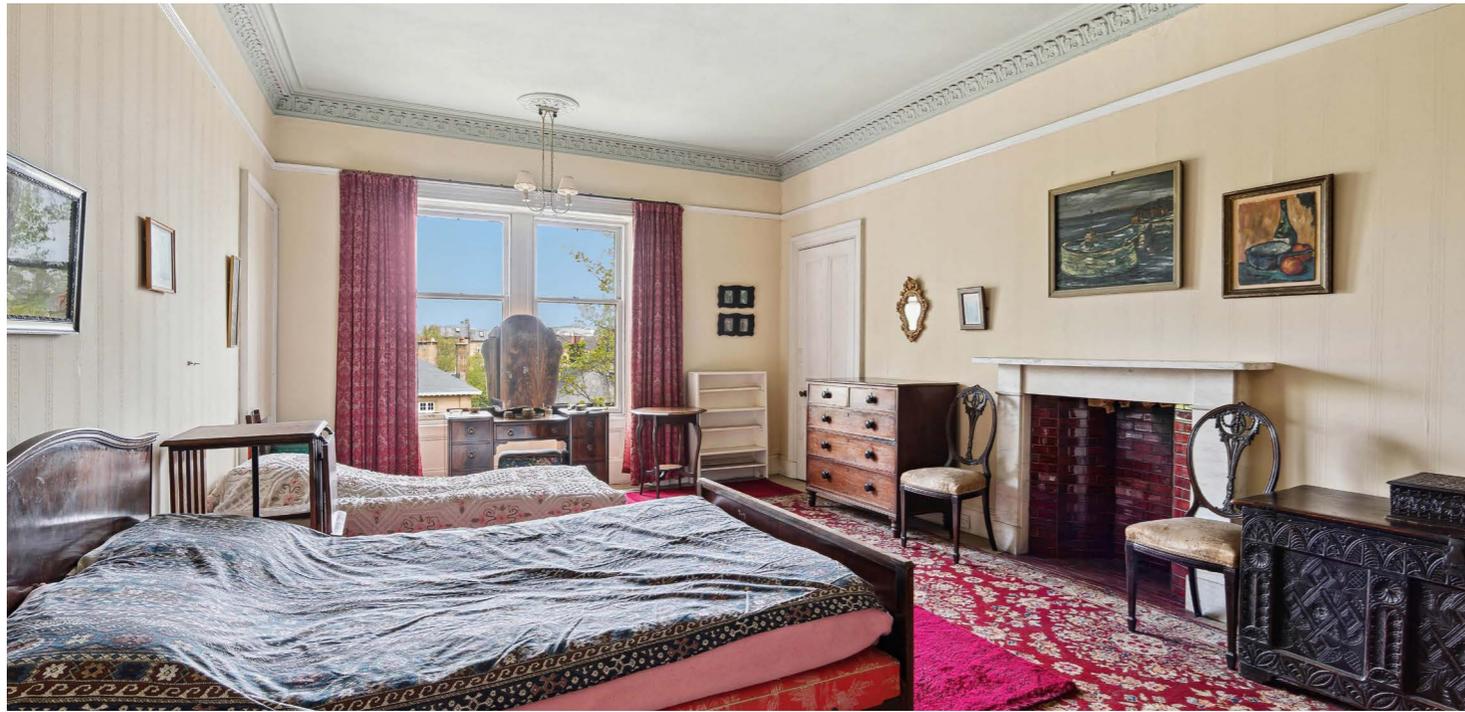

The accommodation comprises; welcoming reception hall, beautiful original stair with the most incredible stained-glass window on the half landing, superb full drawing room with incredible cornice work, dining kitchen, pantry and ample storage and a bathroom.

Upstairs, there are four generously proportioned double bedrooms and some wonderful features including the original marble surrounds and glass cupola allowing natural light to flood through the property. In addition, there is a second bathroom with bath and walk in shower.

The property also benefits from free on street parking and stunning original features.

Kelvinside is an affluent district in the heart of the West End. It is situated north of the River Clyde and is bounded by Broomhill, Dowanhill and Hyndland to the south, with Kelvindale and the River Kelvin to the north. The district boasts some superb large Victorian villas and terraces, along with fantastic new build properties.

Kelvinside is well placed for a number of local shops and amenities, on both Hyndland Road and Byres Road, including cafés, delicatessens, restaurants and bars. The area is extremely popular with families, upsizers and downsizers alike, and there are a number of supermarkets in the area, including Marks & Spencer and Waitrose. Glasgow's Botanic Gardens are close by, offering green space and walks along the River Kelvin. A bus service operates on Cleveden Road, Great Western Road and Hyndland Road, and there are railway stations at Kelvindale and Hyndland. There are also good road links to the City Centre, Glasgow International Airport, and beyond.

The area is home to Kelvinside Academy, a private school situated on the corner of Kirklee Road and Bellshaugh Road, and there is also excellent local schooling as well.
