A truly unique and charming traditional home set in good sized, private gardens within the highly regarded 'Southwood' area of Troon close to Royal Troon Golf Club.

Number 39 Southwood Road is a wonderful home which enjoys a fabulous, private position within the revered 'Southwood' area of Troon. The property is presented in walk in condition and has been imaginatively designed with accommodation suited to both the family market and particularly those clients seeking all on the level living. In addition there is a fantastic purpose built garden room/home office within the garden grounds.

The level of fixture and finish is excellent including a modern fitted kitchen, quality sanitary ware, double glazing, quality flooring, neutral decoration, wood burning stove and gas central heating.

In summary the accommodation extends to, on the ground floor, a broad and welcoming glazed reception hallway, open plan lounge/kitchen, sun room, master bedroom with three piece en-suite shower room and separate three piece bathroom. Upstairs there are two further double bedrooms.

Externally the sweeping driveway is bordered by lawn and mature trees. There is extensive parking and two timber garages. The garden grounds are predominantly laid to lawn with mature trees, shrubby borders, extensive patio area and garden room/home office.
