This wonderful traditional townhouse is located in the picturesque village of Millport on the Isle of Cumbrae. What a fabulous setting with the shorefront and the village amenities a short distance from the property. The views are just beautiful which span out over the bay to the Firth of Clyde and beyond. Not only does the house have a great setting and views this traditional home offers a blend of contemporary and period features along with flexible accommodation.

The Isle of Cumbrae is a wonderful Island set on the Firth of Clyde with regular access to the mainland by Caledonian MacBrayne ferries to Largs. The village of Millport is the main hub on the island with great local amenities to include restaurants, pubs, shops, cafes and many more. This quality townhouse was the former bank in the village which affords the property many period features whilst the present owners have upgraded the home with contemporary features.

A townhouse facing out to the bay with easy access to the amenities and shorefront. The flexible accommodation is formed over three levels which extends to the welcoming reception hallway, substantial lounge with views out over the bay and leads through to the modern fitted kitchen, the kitchen is a social space with access to the rear garden grounds. There is a formal dining room, utility, good sized store and wc on the ground floor. On the first floor the front facing rooms afford lovely views out over the bay and the accommodation on offer is three double bedrooms all with en-suite shower rooms. On the second floor there are two bedrooms both with en-suite shower rooms. The property has partial double glazing and oiled fired central heating. There are wonderful private garden grounds to the rear of the home along with a private garage. Early viewing is highly recommended to appreciate the accommodation and location on offer.
