Amenities

Busby is a village within East Renfrewshire and lies approximately six miles south of Glasgow City Centre and 0.8 miles northwest to the outskirts of East Kilbride. Busby is served by a train station giving direct access to the city centre in addition to locally providing catchment to Busby Primary School and secondary schooling is available via Williamwood High School or St Ninian's High School. The village provides The Busby Hotel which is a major landmark and was extensively refurbished in 2014 in addition to the White Cart and Cartvale pubs on the main street. Busby is a short distance drive to Clarkston which provides further retail outlets, independent cafes, and restaurants.
