Amenities

Barrhead is a pleasant town with lots of green spaces and open outlooks. Local schooling is available at all levels, and you have many local amenities nearby. There are Tesco, Lidl, and a few other high street stores in the Kelburn Centre, just over half a mile away. The larger selection of shops around Main Street includes pharmacies, a butcher, bakeries and takeaways, convenience stores and newsagents, Asda and Iceland supermarkets and a large post office. For a wider selection of high street stores including fashion and electronics, sport, and leisure alongside a choice of restaurants and a 14 screen Vue cinema, the popular Silverburn Shopping Centre is just three and a half miles away. Close to the M77, it has good bus links with Glasgow, Paisley and other centres. Trains from Barrhead Station reach Glasgow Central in approximately 25 minutes.
