This stunning newly refurbished traditional upper conversion forms part of this wonderful, detached property called 'Seaview'. The views from the home are just wonderful out over Millport, Newton Bay, The Eileans and the Firth of Clyde. The house also has extensive private garden grounds and is a short distance to the centre of Millport and the ever popular shorefront.

'Seaview' is a very apt name for this wonderful property, this upper conversion offers stunning panoramic views out over Millport to the Firth of Clyde and beyond. The Isle of Cumbrae is an idyllic island just off the North Ayrshire coastline. Millport is a beautiful coastal town which is served by a range of local amenities and beautiful newly developed shorefront.

The property has been completely upgraded and redeveloped by the present owners to offer contemporary living in this fabulous upper conversion. The accommodation on offer extends to a reception hallway, wc, modern shower room, lounge with feature bay window to the front, dining kitchen also with feature bay window to the front, both enjoying panoramic views over Newton Bay and the gardens and also has three excellent bedrooms. The property has electric heating and newly fitted double glazing windows throughout. The main sizeable garden grounds are set to the front of the house and allow access to Howard Street and the centre of Millport and the shorefront. There are also communal grounds to the rear of the property with a seating area and communal outhouse. Early viewing is highly recommended to appreciate the stunning accommodation and setting on offer.

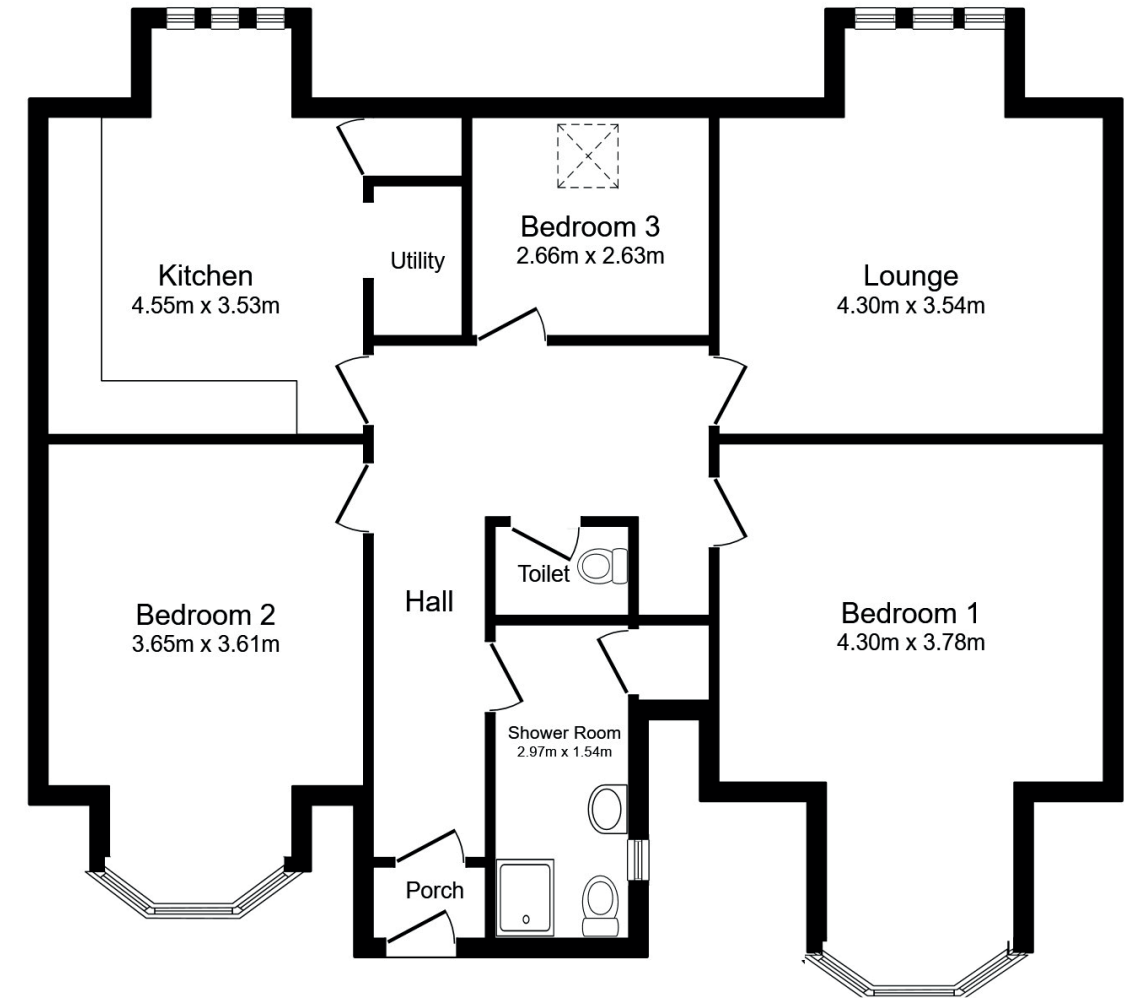

Millport is a seaside town on the Island of Cumbrae and is short ferry ride from Largs pier. It has its own primary school, hospital, golf course, library and bowling green and benefits from a range of shops, bars, restaurants, cafes and amenities. The island is renowned for cycling, and offers opportunities for fishing, bird watching, sailing, water sports and nature/country walks. Largs is well served for connections via train and bus to Glasgow and beyond.
