Immaculately upgraded and effortlessly stylish, this detached three-bedroom (inclusive of attic bedroom) bungalow blends classic charm with modern flair. Featuring herringbone flooring, a chic dining kitchen with quartz worktops, a cosy wood-burning stove, and generous gardens front and back, it's move-in ready perfection in a prime Ayr location.

Step inside 76 Forehill Road and prepare to be impressed. This fully upgraded detached bungalow delivers the perfect mix of style, comfort, and practicality, all wrapped in an immaculately presented package.

The reception hall sets the tone with beautiful herringbone flooring, flowing through to the standout dining kitchen, which is newly fitted with integrated appliances, stunning quartz worktops, and an abundance of sleek wall and base units. A chipped patio and lawn in the substantial rear garden offer space to relax or entertain in style.

On the ground floor, the formal lounge is the heart of the home with two generous double bedrooms offer flexible living arrangements, complemented by a modern bathroom with high-quality tiling, a bath with shower over, and a sophisticated neutral colour palette.

Upstairs, the converted attic provides options for a third bedroom with a Velux window, excellent fitted storage, and plenty of natural light. Outside, there's a driveway and a garage, plus front and rear gardens to enjoy.

Stylish, practical, and perfectly located, this is a home where you can simply unpack and start enjoying.

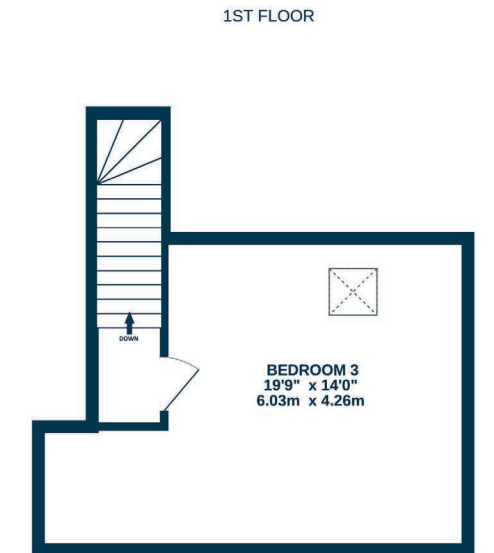

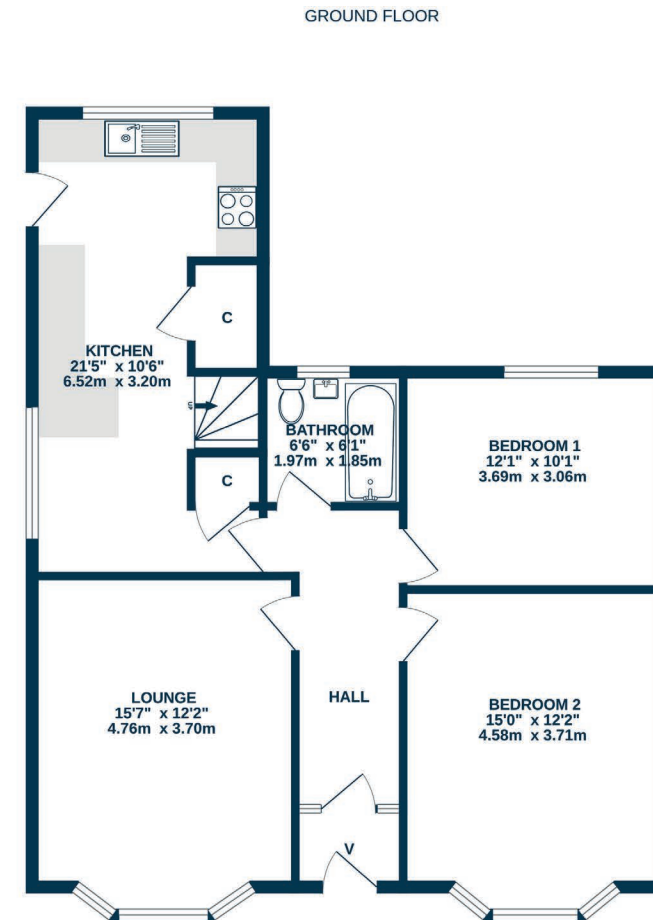

Situated in the sought-after Forehill area of Ayr, Number 76 enjoys a superb location with everything you need close by. From large supermarkets and a variety of independent shops to local cafés and popular restaurants in Ayr town centre, you'll find something for every taste within a short walk or a quick drive. The golden sands of Ayr Beach are around a 5-minute drive away, perfect for seaside walks or summer days out. Rozelle Park and Belleisle Park are both nearby, offering beautiful green spaces, woodland walks, and two highly regarded golf courses. Ayr Central Shopping Centre and Heathfield Retail Park provide an excellent mix of high-street brands, fashion, and homeware. Dobbie's Garden Centre is also within easy reach for garden inspiration. Ayr Train Station is less than 5 minutes' drive, with regular services to Glasgow and beyond. Excellent road links connect you swiftly to the A77 and A70 for commuting or exploring the wider Ayrshire coast.
