An utterly charming two bedroom bungalow quietly positioned within the highly desirable Seafeld area forming part of this award winning development by messrs Gray Homes Ltd.

Originally, Strathdoon House this transformative development offers a unique courtyard development that offers the perfect blend of traditional and contemporary design within a highly desirable location just a stones throw from the sea front and Ayr town centre.

The agents are delighted to present 50J - a simply superb contemporary two bedroom terraced bungalow with high quality specification, stylish interior, private parking and enclosed rear garden.

In more detail - broad reception hall with storage cupboard, fabulous open plan formal lounge/ dining/designer kitchen arrangement with patio doors to garden, two double bedrooms, master en suite shower and dressing room, separate bathroom, shower room, double glazing and gas central heating.

The gardens are easily maintained and offer a high degree of privacy. To the front are pretty communal landscaped gardens and private parking.

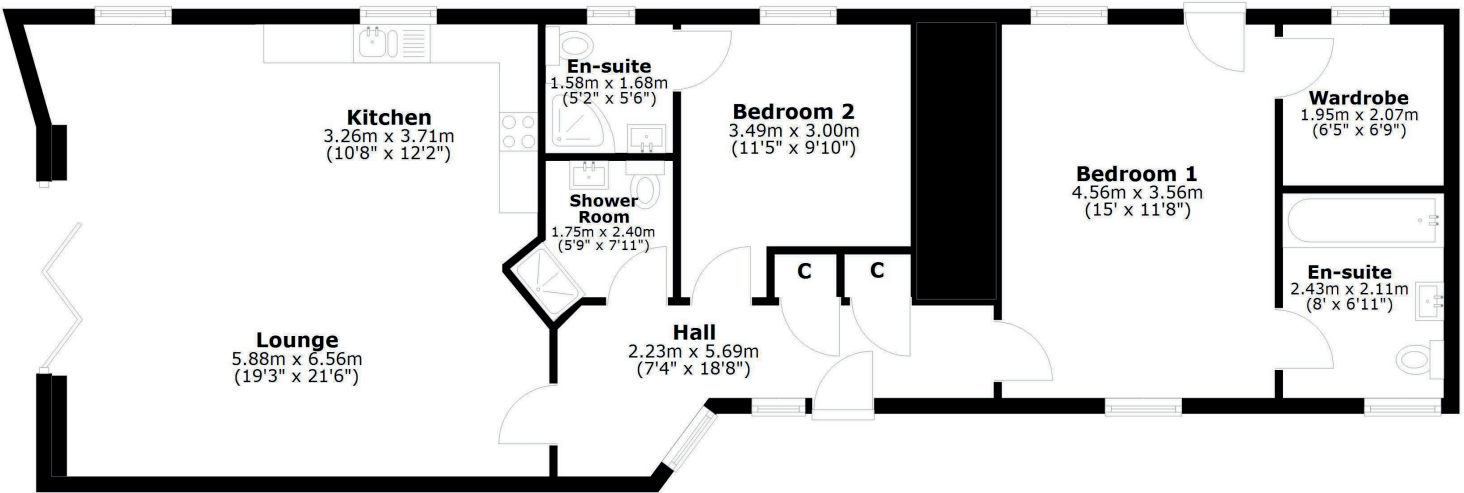

Racecourse Road lies a short distance from Ayr town centre where a short walk along the promenade leads to the famous Low Green and the town centre. The town offers a comprehensive range of amenities including main line rail and bus stations, extensive retail shopping and a wide range of bars and restaurants.
